Introduction

Raja Peary Mohan College is a heritage college and in keeping with its status, it tries to spread awareness about the incredible history of its neighbouring areas. The college authorities have produced a definitive volume about the history of the college titled “Smarok Sombhar” celebrating the completion of 130 years of the college. The volume edited by Dr. Sudip Kumar Chakrabarty contains essays, reminiscences, and vignettes of many famous alumni regarding their attachment to the college. There are essays on various aspects of local history by stalwarts like Professor Sekhar Bandyopadhyay, thespian Chapal Bhaduri, writer Kinnor Ray, and essayist Mridul Bhattacharyya among others. It is a unique book and contains many rare photographs of events that have marked the journey of the college over 130 years.

❖ About INTACH

The Indian National Trust for Art and Cultural Heritage (INTACH) is a non-profit charitable organisation founded in 1984. In 2007, the United Nations awarded INTACH a special consultative status with United Nations Economic and Social Council.

Recognizing the importance of heritage education, INTACH set up the Heritage Education and Communication Service (HECS) in 1998. Since then HECS designed different types of training programmes for several target groups: the public, professionals, city and local authorities, INTACH Chapters, school and college teachers, and students. The aim of these programmes is to make citizens aware of their role in the conservation and preservation of our natural, cultural and living heritage.

❖ About the EVENT

To promote these objectives, the Hooghly Chapter of INTACH, in collaboration with Government General Degree College, Singur, is going to organise a one-day Heritage Volunteer Training Workshop only for college students on Wednesday 21 September 2022 at Government General Degree College, Singur.

This Youth Volunteer Training Workshop is a part of the Youth Volunteer Training Programme and has been endorsed by the Ministry of Culture (Govt. of India), and endeavours to sensitize the youth to protect their heritage and train them to become pioneers in leading a nation-wide movement for heritage conservation and preservation.

The workshop will include overall heritage awareness training along with training in conducting heritage walks, caring for monuments, heritage listing and such other activities. Student-volunteers will be encouraged to share their insights to enrich the Workshop.

At the end of the Workshop, each student-volunteer will receive a certificate, along with a comprehensive Resource Kit to enable them to engage in further heritage conservation/sensitization activities in their respective colleges and neighbourhoods.

To
The Principal / HM / TIC

Madam / Sir

INTACH Hooghly Chapter, in collaboration with Raja Peary Mohan College, is going to organise Heritage Quiz 2022 on Saturday, 22 October, 2022, at Raja Peary Mohan College, Uttarpara, Hooghly.

INTACH Hooghly Chapter has taken this initiative in the true spirit of the objectives of the Indian National Trust for Art & Cultural Heritage (INTACH). To encourage heritage awareness among the school children, the Heritage Education & Communication Service (HECS) Division of INTACH has a network of more than 3000 Heritage Clubs in schools across India, spanning more than 100 cities. Members of Heritage Clubs are known as Young INTACH. HECS prepares resource materials, including books, Young INTACH Newsletter, Young INTACH Website, its Facebook & Instagram pages. The FilmIT INDIA Project of INTACH is special in the fact that students have made more than 4000 short films on heritage across 14 cities in India.

The heritage quiz, such as this, is a popular event of HECS.

We would like to invite you to recommend names of student participants from your school for this event.

Thanking you in the hope of fruitful future interactions.
