1. Title of the Practice

360 DEGREE COUNSELLING

2. Objectives of the Practice

360 Degree Counselling involves a comprehensive counselling programme involving Psychological Counselling, Career Counselling and Academic Counselling through Mentor-Mentee Programme. The college has an active Psychological Counselling Cell, a dynamic Career counselling Cell and also carries out a well-structured Mentor-Mentee programme in order to enable the students

- Develop a more positive outlook towards life.
- Fulfil their career needs to the maximum extent.
- Improve their soft skills to prepare them for interviews, and also help them prepare for competitive exams through training sessions.
- perform better in academics, participate actively in co-curricular and extra-curricular activities through mutual support, within an amiable learning environment.

3. The Context

It was frequently observed that mere academic counselling doesn't solve the problems of the students who need additional support for their mental health and also their career needs. So, it was decided that the college will strive to provide a 360-degree approach with respect to counselling which takes care of the most important problems that a student can encounter in his/her college life. It is also to be noted that all the three are intimately related to each other as they contribute to the holistic development of a student in terms of his/her outlook, and future prospects. Post pandemic world has made this approach more relevant than ever before as it helps to nurture every aspect of a student's developmental arc – be it in academics, career or gaining a positive outlook to life at large.

4. The Practice

- a. As a preamble to Counselling, the college adopts scientific methods to create a database 'Profiling of Students.' This Learner Centric Practice helps us to identify and ensure focus-based delivery of counselling practices especially academic counselling/mentoring.
- b. The Psychological Counselling Cell deals with emotional, behavioural, and cognitive problems (like Academic anxiety, Stress Management, Relationship Problems, Family Problems, Low Confidence, Adapting to a new environment, Addiction – Smoking, drugs, alcohol and even Internet addiction or any other similar psychological issues) for the welfare of our students.

The Counselling services at our college are provided by a Certified Counsellor Mrs Anindita Mukherjee who has helped many of our students overcome anxiety, confidence issues, depression, stress, traumatic experiences etc. The Psychological Counselling Cell support our students with Individual and Group Counselling, Psychiatric Services, Workshops, Crisis Intervention, Stress Management and Systematic Desensitisation.

Department of Commerce it conducts classes for soft skill development of the students of our College. The College has signed MoU with Internshala for conducting internships for the students of the college from time to time & provide placement opportunities to them in several reputed companies. Companies like Infosys & TCS regularly approaches the college for placement purposes. The Cell arranges Seminars/webinars with Career Guidance Institutes to enable students to understand the present job scenario and also develop means to improve their CVs that will give them advantage in the job-market.

d. Long before “Mentor-Mentee” became buzzwords in higher education, this institution has been conducting its regular Academic Counselling/Mentoring Programme but informal in nature and varied in nomenclature. Academic counselling through Mentor-Mentee programme ensures student welfare and better performance in academics, active participation in co-curricular and extra-curricular activities through mutual support, and an amiable learning environment.

- Each student was assigned to the care of the teaching staff who made herself available for consultation and advice on all academic and social matters.
- Tutors met their wards at least once a week in the college.
- Tutors submits tutorial reports to the Principal who sends terminal progress reports to the parents of the wards.
- Students across the disciplines are allotted a tutor and the medley strengthens a sense of belongingness and oneness amongst everyone.

5. Evidence of Success

Provide evidence of success such as performance against targets and benchmarks, review/results. What do these results indicate? Describe in about 200 words.

- The genuine interest shown by the Mentors has developed a sense of confidence, support and security that the Mentees become balanced to face personal and academic challenges.
- Consistent Psychological caring and guiding acts as a morale booster in improving regular attendance and contributes to personal and educational growth of the students.
- Continuous monitoring for technical and soft skill enhancement has increased the number of employable graduates.
- A strong and caring triangular bond is cemented day by day among parents, teachers and students.
- The help and guidance received is so ingrained in their minds that they voluntarily give back the same to the society through extension activities.
- The Profiling map helps the students to take cognisance of their own progress. This is a scientific way of measuring one's positionality based on hard data and that helps the student to take note of his strengths and weaknesses at the same time.

6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required

Please identify the problems encountered and resources required to implement the practice (in about 150 words).

- Space constraints pose difficulties in conducting Mentor-Mentee sessions in separate classrooms.

- Sometimes students preferring a particular teacher as the mentor cannot be accommodated given the large student strength.
- The faculty in spite of their busy academic and administrative preoccupations, extend their genuine support but there is a possibility of not extending adequate quality time to their mentees at times.
- If the mentees are allotted across the disciplines, they may feel free to share their problems and sometimes the familiarity of subject teachers makes them bottle up their difficulties.
- Career Counselling Course requires more outreach so that it can attract more companies from other parts of India. Right now, it is mainly restricted to Eastern India.
- Psychological Cell need more qualified counsellors who can guide the students adequately. The number of students who want to attend the counselling sessions are increasing day by day and it is becoming difficult to accommodate all the students.

7. Notes (Optional)

Please add any other information that may be relevant for adopting/implementing the Best Practice in other Institutions (in about 150 words). Any other information regarding Institutional Values and Best Practices which the university would like to include.

In order to enable focus-based counselling, the college also use scientific mechanisms to create a database related to Profiling of Students). This Learner centric practice helps to

- Focus on knowing our students and helping students know themselves.
- Analyse how the students' profiles are progressing.
- Learners learn how to create their own profiles.

Students profile help in understanding the demographical and educationally challenged conditions of the candidates who apply to the college as well as their aptitudes in specific fields ranging from their ability to process information, to communicating patterns, to their intelligence score.

The mapping starts with individual student personal details including name, class, subject, and family empowerment. Then their aptitude profiling is done under the following heads 1. Academic Score (100) 2. Knowledge Score (20) 3. Propensity to use tools (60) 4. Propensity to communicate (20) 5. Propensity to think (40) 6. Propensity to accept tasks (60) 7. Intelligence Score (80)

This data provides the basis for Gq and Mq mapping which is represented in a bar graph which is then compared to those of their Peer Groups. First, they are judged on the basis of their Academic, Knowledge and Intelligence scores. After that, it is compared to their propensities to communicate, use educational tools, and communicate.

The clusters are characterized by a predominance of young students without previous employment experience, living mostly in the suburban areas and their parents have very low economic level.

How to Appreciate the Profile Map

First look into your

- Academic Score – reflects how good you are in your studies
- Knowledge Score – reflects how much you know
- Intelligence Score – reflects how good you are in solving problems

If these three scores are high your "general quotient" will be satisfactory

Then try to identify your propensities

- Propensity to Accept Tasks – tendency to believe on your own abilities which allows you to accept any task given to you
- Propensity to Think – tendency of applying your mind to any given task and seek solutions to such tasks
- Propensity to Communicate – tendency to receive other people's thought and also sending your thoughts to other people, in different situations and through diverse media
- Propensity to Use Tools – tendency to make use of tools towards fulfilling your functional requirements and be a task enabler

If these four propensities are high your "empowerment quotient" will be satisfactory.

03. Psychological Counselling through Psychological Counselling Cell

Summative Report

A Psychological counselling cell was established in 2018 under the leadership of IQAC Coordinator Dr. Sanjukta Bhattacharyya. Since its inception, the Psychological Counselling Cell has been available to help students work through their problems, develop as people, and realize their full potential.

The Primary aim of the Psychological Counselling Cell is to cater to the mental health and well-being of the fraternity of our college: students, teachers and non-teaching staffs all alike. The cell deals with an array of emotional, cognitive, behavioural and operational problems like anxiety, attention, low confidence, relational management, anger management, abuse, trauma, addiction and various other issues for the welfare of the students.

The counselling services are provided by Mrs. Anindita Mukherjee, Consultant Psychologist. She has helped many of our students overcome many mental health issues.

Objectives of the Psychological Counselling Cell:

- To provide a safe and confidential space for students to discuss and address their mental health concerns.
- To promote resilience and well-being of students, teachers and non-teaching staffs of our college
- To foster self-confidence, self-esteem and interpersonal skills.
- To offer immediate support during emergencies.
